ESSAY ON INDEPENDENCE DAY (200 WORDS)

Independence Day 4 July is an important national holiday in the United States. It celebrates the day when America became free from British rule in 1776. The Declaration of Independence was signed on this day, which marked the birth of a new nation.

Every year, Americans celebrate this day with great pride. People decorate their homes with red, white, and blue colors. Cities hold parades, concerts, and fireworks shows. Families gather for picnics and enjoy spending time together. Children often participate in flag hoisting, crafts, and fun games.

This day is also a reminder of the sacrifices made by many brave leaders and soldiers who fought for freedom. It is a day of respect and honor. Independence Day 4 July teaches kids about the value of liberty, bravery, and national unity.

It is more than just fun and fireworks—it's a time to feel grateful for our country and proud to be part of it.
